Terms and Conditions

- All entries must be in NTSC format and submitted on miniDV or DVD (please don't use stick-on labels on DVDs). Accepted entries may be exhibited on a tape format. We will do a conversion if the necessary format cannot be provided by the submitter.
- If you are submitting multiple shorts that are each 15 minutes or fewer, please pay the submission fee according to their total running time. Any work 16 minutes or more should be considered separately and have its own fee paid.
- Entries must be in English or have English subtitles.
- All submissions must be postmarked by January 31st, 2009.
- Make checks payable to "Akron Independent Film Festival."
- AIFF cannot guarantee that the work submitted will be selected for screening, and reserves the right to reject submissions.
- Materials submitted will not be returned.
- AIFF cannot accept responsibility for loss of, or damage to, film prints while they are on loan to the festival.
- If available, please include a promotional photograph or trailer on media separate from the submitted movie.
- All directors and producers will be notified of acceptance by March 14th, 2009.
- Rights to use all images and music in the movie must be owned by the submitter. We will not check – it is the submitter's liability.
- We may use the names listed on this form plus clips and stills from your submission in advertising for the festival.
- Our rights to public exhibition of the submitted work terminate after the dates of the festival.
- By signing below you agree to all of the above criteria.
